U.O. No. 49 -

There is nothing in the file to shew who the devotees and the Pujari of the temple in the old Harohalli village were, and whether these persons have made any representations on the subject of the reconstruction of the Temple - It is not also known for what reasons the village of Madagonhalli in the Kodihalli hobli has been chosen for the construction of a Temple in place of one which was originally in Harohalli village of Kakol Hobli. In the absence of valid reasons in support of the proposal on hand the available amount may well be absorbed in the Genral Muzrai funds and utilized, at the discretion of Govt.

for any fit purpose for which a need is made out.

Again, the Inam of the old Temple consisted of a wet and a dry S no. with a total assessment of Rs 7/8. It is not known whether the amount of compensation awarded (Rs 236/12) was fixed solely with reference to the market value of the lands as kandayam paying lands or their value as Inams was also taken into consideration. In the latter case, the Temple, wherever it may be constructed, can have no claim to the grant of fresh Inam.
